ARTHUR M. WIRTZ

January 23, 1901 - July 21, 1983

The city of Chicago and the Black Hawks lost one of their most ardent friends when Arthur M. Wirtz died this summer after fighting complications caused by diabetes for nearly seven months.

Mr. Wirtz was a big man, both physically (6'5") and in the spirit he showed when it came to helping anything pertaining to his native City of Chicago.

He served under four mayors as Chairman of the Chicago Urban Transportation District and as a founding member of the McCormick Place Board to help in bringing conventions and industry to Chicago.

He was probably most famous for bringing Sonja Henie to America and starting the Hollywood Ice Revue which toured the largest arenas in North America for more than 15 years. He also produced an ice revue in Rockefeller Center in New York which sold out night after night for more than 12 years. Mr. Wirtz was truly the "Father of Ice Shows", an entertainment industry he started in 1936 which continues to thrill young and old with clean entertainment.

Owner of several movie theaters including the famous Palace Theater in the Bismarck Hotel, Mr. Wirtz converted the Palace to a convention room when movies began moving away from family entertainment.

Mr. Wirtz and his associates started in hockey in the early 30's as owners of the Detroit Red Wings, winning 6 straight league titles at one stretch and three Stanley Cups. But he was not happy until he was able to trade his interest in Detroit for control of the Chicago Stadium and the Black Hawks in the early 50's. One of his greatest thrills was watching his team win the Stanley Cup in 1961.

With all of his successes in real estate, sports, and business, his proudest achievements came in connection with his family. In 1975, Mr. and Mrs. Wirtz celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a festive party given by their children in the Chicago Stadium, which had been transformed into a beautiful ballroom for the occasion.

Mrs. Wirtz died last December 28, and shortly after that Mr. Wirtz was hospitalized due to diabetic shock and stroke. His fighting spirit helped him, but he succumbed in July.

Arthur Wirtz, as well as his son, William are members of the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Mr. Wirtz is survived by two sons, William and Michael (Arthur Jr.), two daughters, Cynthia MacArthur and Elizabeth, 10 grandchildren, and six great grandchildren.

WILLIAM W. WIRTZ

President

Since taking over as president of the Black Hawks in 1967, William Wirtz has found himself more and more involved in the operations of hockey.

While he makes himself available for day to day decisions about his own team, he also has spent many long hours dealing with hockey problems on a league level. Bill was unanimously re-elected Chairman of the NHL Board of Governors at the summer meetings a year ago and is currently serving his fifth two year term.

In that capacity, he must deal on a daily basis with such matters as player negotiations, expansion, and the myriad of problems that develop on the international hockey front.

Bill has taken an active part in hockey and the Black Hawks since his graduation from Brown University in 1950.

For his many contributions to hockey and the NHL, he was elected to Hockey's Hall of Fame in 1976, joining his father who was elected to the Hall in 1971.

Along with his many interests in the game of hockey, Bill is very active in harness racing both as a breeder and in the racing end of the sport. One of the family's greatest breeding accomplishments was the development of Governor Skipper which was named the Pacer of the Year in 1977 after establishing 12 world records. Fortune Teller, son of Governor Skipper, won the world's richest harness race, the $1,957,500 Woodrow Wilson Pace at The Meadowlands two summers ago.

MICHAEL WIRTZ

Vice President

Having been vice president of the Black Hawks since 1958, Mike Wirtz finds himself completely involved in the team. No one suffers more when the team is having a bad streak and no one enjoys himself more when the club is playing well.

His enthusiasm for the Black Hawks and the game of hockey make Mike an invaluable asset to the team. If he thinks there is something he can do to help a player or anyone else connected with the Black Hawk organization, you will find Mike putting in more than his share of time and effort to get things done.

Mike works closely with his brother, Bill, and Vice President Tommy Ivan on the many hockey problems that develop on all levels. Because of his dedication, he is never too busy to lend a helping hand.

Mike's own boys were very active in amateur hockey and he even pitched in to help with the coaching at the Glenview Ice Arena.

Mike is a graduate of the Wharton School of Commerce at the University of Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Sunny, have three children.

THOMAS N. IVAN

Vice President

Serving in almost every capacity during his more than 50 years in hockey, Tommy Ivan is one of the most knowledgeable people in the game.

After winning six straight league championships and three Stanley Cups as coach of the Detroit Red Wings, Tommy came to the Black Hawks as general manager in 1954. He served more than 25 years with the Chicago team and brought them from virtual obscurity to one of the most respected franchises in the NHL. He managed the team to a Stanley Cup in 1961 and has seen his Hawks go to the Finals of the Playoffs in 1962, 65, 71 and 73.

One of Tommy's proudest accomplishments is the growth of college hockey in the U.S. He was one of the first NHL executives to see the potential of colleges and has long been one of the biggest boosters of that phase of the sport.

In 1974, Tommy was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame and three years ago was named Director of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame. He was awarded the Lester Patrick Trophy in 1975 for his contributions to hockey in the United States. He is also on the selection committee of the Hall of Fame in Toronto.

As chairman of the organizing committee for the 1978-79 Olympic Hockey Festival, Tommy and his committee were instrumental in bringing more than 90 U.S. players together for coach Herb Brooks and his staff to select a team that went on to win the Gold Medal at the 1980 Winter Olympics at Lake Placid.

After a quarter century as Black Hawk General Manager, Tommy has served as vice president and alternate governor for the team the past five years.

He and his wife, Dorothy live in the northern suburbs.

ROBERT J. PULFORD

General Manager

One of the brightest and well-respected General Managers in the game today, Bob Pulford has proven once again that he takes a back seat to no one when it comes to putting a competitive team on the ice.

For the second straight season, Pulford has seen his club reach the semi-final series in Stanley Cup play.

Pulford served as coach of the Los Angeles Kings for five years before coming to Chicago. Here, he served as coach and general manager for two seasons and parts of another. At the present time, Pulford devotes all of his time to his role as general manager.

This past season, Pulford hired Orval Tessier to lead his troops on the ice. The move proved invaluable as Tessier led the Hawks to the Norris Division title.

Pulford is responsible for putting together the young talent that comprises the Chicago Black Hawks current team. Through long hours of work and dedication Pulford is striving to reach his goal of bringing Chicago its first Stanley Cup since 1961.

Pulford was named Coach of the Year in Los Angeles in 1974-75 and the Hockey News bestowed that same honor on him with the Black Hawks in 1977-78.

"Pully" is usually a very quiet and reserved man whose dedication is unquestioned. He dies with each loss but finds new life in each victory. He has done a masterful job in molding and rebuilding the team and the Black Hawks are just beginning to reap the benefits.

Bob, his wife Roslyn, and their three children reside in the northern suburbs.

JACK DAVISON

Asst. General Manager

With more than 20 years in the Black Hawk organization, including many of those as the Hawks' chief scout, Jack Davison joins with Bob Pulford to give the team one of the best 1-2 combinations in sports management.

Because of his years of scouting experience, Jack oversees the team's scouting operation and supervises the NHL draft each summer.

He makes his headquarters in his home in Toronto, but spends a good amount of time in Chicago as well. He is always as close as the nearest telephone when General Manager Pulford needs his help.

Over the years, Jack has played or coached at every level of amateur and professional hockey. His experience at all levels is what has made him into one of the better judges of young talent.

A good athlete in his playing days, Jack had a tryout with the Braves' organization as a first baseman. He also swings a mean golf club and is one of the best golfers in Canada. Doing such a good job in scouting young players has taken up a lot of time formerly used for playing golf. However, his efforts in searching out young talent for the Black Hawks have begun to manifest themselves on the ice.

Jack and his wife, Isobel, have three children.

ORVAL TESSIER

Coach

For Orval Tessier, life in the National Hockey League began at 49. Although he played two years for the Boston Bruins and had four games in a Montreal uniform back in the late 50's and early 60's, last year was by far his most successful season.

Under Tessier's direction, the Black Hawks were the most improved club in the NHL, 32 points better than the year before. Under Tessier, the Hawks set a new club record for most goals scored in a season while, at the same time, markedly decreasing their goals against. Under Tessier, the Black Hawks had 104 standing points which was the best since 1973-74 when they had 105. Under Tessier, the Black Hawks reached the Campbell Conference finals in playoff competition.

For his tremendous accomplishments as a coach last season, Orval Tessier was awarded the Adams Trophy as the National Hockey League's "Coach of the Year."

It is no surprise that Tessier's team would be successful. He has been a winner everywhere he's coached. In his first season as a professional coach, he took New Brunswick to the American Hockey League championship and then to the Calder Cup title in the playoffs. Tessier also won the Memorial Cup with Cornwall and took Kitchener and Chicoutimi to the Memorial Cup finals. In seven years of coaching at Cornwall, Tessier had a winning percentage of better than .600.

Orval and his wife, Charlotte, have four children; Adele McCloud, Andre, Michael, and Julie. They also have two grandchildren; Chistopher and Melissa.

The Tessier's spend the off season back at their home in Cornwall, Ontario.

CLIFF KOROLL

Assistant Coach

Only eight players in Black Hawk history have scored more than the 208 goals that Cliff Koroll had in his 11 years as a right winger for the Hawks.

Koroll joined the team in 1969-70, replacing Kenny Wharram who was forced to retire because of a heart problem. Cliff was given the task of filling the skates of Wharram, one of the all-time great right wingers in the NHL.

Koroll did such a good job that the Hawks went on to win the Prince of Wales Trophy as the top team in the NHL after finishing in last place the year before.

A tremendous two way player, Koroll silently went about patrolling his wing game in and game out for 11 seasons before accepting the position of assistant coach upon his retirement.

Cliff will be entering his second season as assistant to Orval Tessier which means he will continue working with the wings at practices, doing some advance scouting in other NHL cities, and performing whatever duties are asked of him.

Cliff is a dedicated individual who sees his job as doing whatever is necessary to make the Black Hawks a winning team. A graduate of Denver University, Koroll is one of the many players to have made it into the NHL from the college ranks.

Cliff and his wife, Lynnae, have three children; Jason, C.J., and Amanda. The Korolls reside in the western suburbs.

MURRAY BANNERMAN

Born: St. Francis, Ontario

April 27, 1957

Murray will be entering his fourth season as a member of the Chicago Black Hawk goaltending crew. Last season, he played in 41 games, which was the most of his career to this point, while posting a goals against average of 3.10, also a career low. Bannerman played in eight playoff games for the Hawks last year, had a record of 4-4, and a goals against average of 4.00.

Bannerman was acquired by the Hawks from Vancouver on November 4, 1977, in a deal that sent center Pit Martin to the Canucks. He was sent to New Brunswick where he played for two seasons before joining the parent club.

Bannerman began to make his presence felt in the 1981-82 playoffs when he turned in solid performances against the St. Louis Blues and Minnesota North Stars. As the seasons have progressed, he has been given the chore of handling more and more of the goaltending duties.

In his first season, Murray was used in only 15 games as opposed to 29 in his sophomore year and his career high of 41 games last season. His record of 24-12-5, which included four shutouts, marked the best ever in his three year NHL career. One key point of last season was a lengthy seven game road trip in which the Hawks were able to post a 5-1-1 record. Bannerman played in four of those seven games, had a 3-0-1 record, and a goals against average of 2.74. There is no question that Bannerman has come a long way in a short time and continues to have a bright future in a Black Hawk uniform.

Murray and his wife, Liz, have a young son Dana.

KEITH BROWN

DEFENSEMAN

Shoots Right 6'1" 190 lbs.

Born: Cornerbrook, Newfoundland

May 6, 1960

Entering his fourth season as a Black Hawk, Keith has had the misfortune of incurring two serious injuries in the past two seasons. A knee injury forced him to miss several games in the 1981-82 season and a shoulder separation forced him out of 30 games last season. However, his drive and desire have played a large part in his total recovery from both mishaps.

A product of the Portland Junior Team, Brown was the Black Hawks number one draft choice in the 1979 draft. He made it to the big club at the age of 19 as he showed the ability to handle the puck as well as being a solid body checker. Keith also gives the Hawks a two way defenseman, one who can play both an offensive and defensive style.

Following last season's shoulder separation which sidelined Brown for a number of games, he returned to the Chicago lineup for playoff duty. Keith played in seven of the 13 playoff games for the Hawks and logged four assists. More importantly, he showed no ill effects from his earlier season injury.

Brown had four goals and 27 assists for 31 points last season which was the second highest point total in his NHL career. His 27 assists leave him needing just one more to eclipse the 100 mark in career assists.

Off the ice, Keith enjoys playing golf and has also competed in the NHL Arm Wrestling Championships for the last two years. Keith is single and resides in the western suburbs.

DENIS CYR

Born: Verdun, Quebec

February 4, 1961

Denis will be entering his first full season in a Chicago uniform. He played two seasons with the Calgary Flames before coming to the Black Hawks in a trade on November 9, 1982. Cyr was a first round draft choice (13th overall) of the Flames in 1980.

There is no question Denis is going to get his points in the NHL. He possesses some of the greatest skills in the league. He had back to back 70 goal seasons with the Junior Canadiens of the Quebec Major Junior League. There, with linemates Denis Savard and Denis Tremblay, they formed "Les Trois Denis" line, all three sharing the same name and birthday.

In Cyr's rookie season with the Flames, he was expected to turn the league upside down with his prior credentials. However, after ten games, Denis was sent back to juniors where he picked up 50 goals in 57 games. Cyr has shown flashes of brilliance on occasion, capitalizing on his ability to cut in on goal from his off wing position.

Last season with the Black Hawks, Cyr appeared in 41 games and scored seven goals while adding eight assists. Overall, he had eight goals and nine assists for 17 points.

Denis is single and spends his summers in his home town of Verdun, Quebec.

Shoots Right 5'11" 180 lbs.

Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario

April 23, 1943

Esposito will be entering his sixteenth year in the National Hockey League and his fifteenth as a Black Hawk. He broke into the NHL in the 1968-69 season with the Montreal Canadiens and joined the Black Hawks the following year.

Tony has played in 868 regular season games and has logged a total of 51,490 minutes. He has recorded 75 shutouts, 73 as a Black Hawk, which leads all active goaltenders and ranks seventh among all time goaltenders in NHL history. His six playoff shutouts also stand as a Black Hawk record.

In his first season with the Hawks, Esposito recorded 15 shutouts in 63 games while posting a goals against average of 2.17 and capturing the Vezina Trophy. It helped propel the Hawks from a last place finish the year before to a first place finish and the Prince of Wales Trophy.

Last season, Esposito played in 39 regular season games and had a record of 23-11-5, including one shutout, and a goals against average of 3.46. He continued his outstanding play in the playoffs as he played in five games, had a 3-2 record, and posted a 3.47 goals against average. He was undefeated in both the St. Louis (1-0) and Minnesota (2-0) series.

While at the age of 40, Esposito plays the game with the vigor and desire of a 20 year old. Tony's record and accomplishments speak for themselves. He will, no doubt, go down as one of the all time great goaltenders to have ever played in the NHL.

DAVE FEAMSTER

Shoots Left 5'11" 180 lbs.

Born: Detroit, Michigan

September 10, 1958

Feamster will be entering his third season with the Chicago Black Hawks. He came to Chicago as a sixth round draft choice in 1978 out of Colorado College where he achieved All-American status. Born in Detroit, Dave is part of the trend in the National Hockey League that is leading to more American players.

Feamster got his first taste of the NHL in the 1981-82 season when injuries to Keith Brown and Bob Murray left the Hawks defensive corps depleted. Dave got the call and did a stellar job on the Hawks defensive line and in the process earned himself a permanent spot on the club.

Last season, Feamster played in 78 games for the Hawks and had six goals and 12 assists for 18 points, all career highs. He scored a big goal in round one of the Stanley Cup Playoffs against the St. Louis Blues that helped the Hawks to a 5-3 win in the fourth and final game of that series.

Although he does not receive a great deal of notoriety, Dave is the kind of player who can always be counted upon to give his 100% when he steps on the ice.

MEET THE TRAINERS

LOU VARGA

CHARLES (SKIP) THAYER

GREG FOX

Shoots Left 6'2" 194 lbs.

Born: Vancouver, British Columbia

August 12, 1953

A seven year veteran of the NHL, Fox will be entering his fifth full season as a Black Hawk and sixth overall. He came to the Black Hawks on March 13, 1979, from the Atlanta Flames in an eight player deal that also brought Tom Lysiak to Chicago.

Born in Vancouver, B.C., Fox is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he played college hockey. He broke into the NHL in the 1977-78 season as a member of the Atlanta Flames where he played for almost two seasons before coming to Chicago.

Since coming to the Hawks, Fox has shown his durability as he has missed just 19 games during his Chicago career. Greg is a steady player and possibly one of the most underrated defensemen in the league. He does not score a lot of points, but he does all the intangibles that are necessary for a team to be a winner. His opponents are aware of his presence on the ice as they frequently encounter Fox along the boards or in the corners.

Last season, Fox played in 76 games for the Hawks and had 12 assists. He also played in the Hawks 13 playoff games and had three assists. His career totals of 10 goals and 77 assists for 87 points leave him just 13 points shy of cracking the 100 point barrier.

Born: Cincinnati, Ohio

January 12, 1958

A five year veteran of the NHL, Fraser came to the Black Hawks on January 6, 1983, from Vancouver in a deal that sent Tony Tanti to the Canucks. Born in Cincinnati, Fraser moved to Winnipeg and then to North Vancouver at an early age where he began to play hockey. Curt was a second round draft choice of the Vancouver Canucks in 1978.

Fraser's best season was in 1981-82 when he scored 28 goals and added 39 assists for 67 points. He led the Canucks in power play goals that season with 11. After coming to Chicago last season, Fraser played in 38 games and had six goals, including two game winning goals, and 13 assists for 19 points. He needs just two more goals to reach the 100 mark in his career.

Fraser was especially effective on the line with Steve Ludzik and Tim Higgins in the first two rounds of the playoffs as the Hawks defeated the St. Louis Blues and the Minnesota North Stars. Curt had four goals and four assists in playoff competition.

Fraser is a strong, durable player who has missed only 14 games in his five years of NHL action. He likes to mix it up in the corners and is not shy about throwing his weight around when necessary. He does not back down from an altercation when it arises, but is very seldom seen starting one.

Fraser enjoys boating in the off season at his home in North Vancouver. Curt and his new bride, Vicki, were married over the summer.

BILL GARDNER

Born: Toronto, Ontario

March 19, 1960

Gardner will be entering his third full season as a member of the Chicago Black Hawks. He was a third round draft choice of the Hawks in 1979. He saw his first NHL action during the 1980-81 season when the Hawks brought him up for one game. However, after a very good season at New Brunswick that same year, Gardner was invited to training camp and made the big club for the 1981-82 season.

Gardner is the kind of player every team would like to have. He is a fierce competitor and a versatile player who can operate from either the center or wing position. He has also proven to be an outstanding penalty killer. Billy is a solid two way player who did a tremendous job filling in for Tom Lysiak when he was injured last season. During that time, Gardner had seven goals and 12 assists.

Last season, Gardner played in 77 games and amassed 15 goals and 25 assists for 40 points, all career highs. He also scored two power play goals, two game winning goals, and two game tying goals. Gardner played in 13 playoff games for the Hawks and had one power play goal which came in the final series against Edmonton.

Bill and his wife, Kathy, reside in the western suburbs.

TIM HIGGINS

Shoots Right 6'1" 188 lbs.

Born: Ottawa, Ontario

February 7, 1958

Higgins will be returning for his sixth season with the Chicago Black Hawks. He was a number one draft choice in 1978 and got his first taste of the NHL in the 1978-79 season when he was called up from New Brunswick. Tim saw action in 36 games and performed admirably as he scored seven goals and added 16 assists.

Tim has been a member of the big club ever since and has proven he can score in the NHL. Higgins has scored 20 or more goals in two of the last three seasons. Despite nagging injuries that plagued him all of last season, he still managed to score 14 goals.

Last year, Higgins was teamed with a couple of new linemates in the persons of Steve Ludzik and Curt Fraser. The trio worked well together and were instrumental in helping the Hawks through the first two rounds of the playoffs.

One of the fastest skaters in the NHL, Higgins is also able to use his size to his advantage. He is a scrapper and does not hesitate to throw his weight around when necessary. He also possesses a blistering shot that has accounted for 78 career goals. Tim needs just 22 goals to hit the century mark and 20 points to reach the 200 point plateau.

Off the ice, Tim enjoys fishing and playing golf. He also has been known to win a game or two on the pool table. Tim and his wife, Jane, reside in the western suburbs.

Shoots Left 5'10" 189 lbs.

Born: Peterborough, Ontario

June 16, 1961

Larmer's first full season in the National Hockey League will be one he will never forget. Playing on the line with Denis Savard and Al Secord, Larmer contributed 43 goals and 47 assists for 90 points which won him the honor of being named the NHL's "Rookie of the Year".

Larmer was a sixth round draft choice of the Black Hawks in the 1980 NHL entry draft. He got his first taste of the NHL in the 1980-81 season when he was called up for four games and had one assist. He was subsequently called up for three games the following year before making the club for good last season.

Last season, Steve did more than anyone could ask as he led all NHL rookies in scoring with 90 points, led all rookies in goals with 43, and tied for the lead among rookies in assists with 47. Larmer led the Black Hawks in plus/minus with a plus 44 and in game winning goals with nine. He also set new club records for most goals and most points by a Hawk rookie while tying the mark for most assists at 47. Larmer also set a new Hawk record for most goals in a season by a right winger at 43 and led the team in hat tricks last season with two.

Larmer's scoring continued through the playoffs as he played in 11 games and had five goals and seven assists for 12 points to rank second among rookie playoff scorers.

Steve and his wife, Rose, reside in the western suburbs during the season.

Born: Toronto, Ontario

April 3, 1962

This will be Steve's second full season in a Chicago Black Hawk uniform. He was a third round draft choice in 1980 that turned out to be one of the most productive drafts ever for the Black Hawks. It included such current Hawk players as Denis Savard, Troy Murray, and Steve Larmer.

Ludzik received his initiation into the NHL in 1981-82 when he played in eight games scoring two goals and adding one assist. He came to training camp last year under new coach Orval Tessier, whom he had played for in the minors, and made the parent club. Last season, he played in 66 games amassing six goals and 19 assists for 25 points. When Steve was teamed with Tim Higgins and mid-season acquisition Curt Fraser, they formed one of the most aggressive lines on the club accumulating 203 minutes in penalties.

Ludzik continued his aggressive play in the playoffs scoring three goals and adding five assists in 13 games. It was the Ludzik line that contributed heavily in the Hawk victories in playoff rounds one and two.

Steve is single and during the summer enjoys fishing and playing softball near his home town of Toronto.

TOM LYSIAK

Shoots Left 6'1" 204 lbs.

Born: High Prairie, Alberta

April 22, 1953

A ten year veteran of the NHL, Lysiak returns to begin his fifth full season as a Chicago Black Hawk. Lysiak came to Chicago from the Atlanta Flames in March of 1979 in an eight player deal.

One of the premier stick handlers and play makers in the NHL, Tommy had another outstanding year with linemates Darryl Sutter and Rich Preston. Despite missing 19 games last season, Lysiak still managed to score 23 goals and add 38 assists for 61 points in 61 games.

Lysiak has moved up among the all-time Black Hawk leaders in goals scored with 102, in assists with 196, and in total points with 298. Last season, he attained four personal career milestones; he scored his 250th career goal, he recorded his 450th career assist, he scored his 700th career point, and he played in his 700th career game. Lifetime, Lysiak has played in 740 career games and has scored 729 points, an average of almost one point per game.

Lysiak had six power play goals and four game winning goals last season. He continued to sparkle in the playoffs as he had 13 total points in 13 playoff games (six goals and seven assists) to rank third among Hawk playoff scorers. Tommy had two game winning goals (which led the team) and two power play goals in playoff competition last year.

In the off season, Tommy and his wife, Melinda enjoy spending time on their Georgia farm. Tommy also likes to relax by going fishing and hunting in the summer months.

PETER MARSH

Shoots Left 6'1" 180 lbs.

Born: Halifax, Nova Scotia

December 21, 1956

Marsh will be entering his fourth season with the Black Hawks. He was acquired from Winnipeg on December 2, 1980, in a deal that sent Doug Lecuyer and Tim Trimper to the Jets.

Peter was drafted 29th overall by Pittsburgh in 1976 but elected instead to play for the Cincinnati Stingers of the WHA where he proceeded to score 91 goals in three years. He joined the Winnipeg Jets in the NHL for the 1978-79 season and played there for a year and a half before coming to Chicago.

Marsh, one of the fastest skaters in the NHL, has had a problem with consistency since coming to the NHL. There is no question of his ability, but he has had a hard time in fitting the puzzle pieces together. His best season was in 1979-80 when he scored 18 goals and added 20 assists. Last season, he was used mainly as a penalty killer and teamed with either Billy Gardner or Rick Paterson. He played in 68 games and had six goals, including two game winners, and 14 assists for 20 points. Peter also got into 12 playoff games and had a pair of assists.

In the off season, Peter and his wife, Paula, spend part of their summer in North Carolina. Marsh enjoys playing golf and softball during most of the summer months.

GRANT MULVEY

Shoots Right 6'3" 204 lbs.

Born: Sudbury, Ontario

September 17, 1956

Mulvey is entering his tenth season as a member of the Chicago Black Hawks. He was a number one draft choice of the Hawks in 1974. Mulvey saw very little action in a Chicago uniform last season after suffering a knee injury in only the seventh game on October 20 against the Buffalo Sabres.

Mulvey's size and strength combine to make him a dangerous forward when he is playing. This was exemplified in the 1979-80 season when he scored a career high 39 goals and 26 assists for 65 points. He started the next season where he left off the previous year as he had scored 18 goals before Christmas only to be sidelined with a broken leg.

Mulvey bounced back the next year as he scored 30 goals in the 1981-82 season and was looking forward to another good year in 1982-83 before the knee injury forced him to miss virtually the entire season.

Grant holds the Black Hawk record for scoring the most goals in a game as he bagged five against the St. Louis Blues on February 3, 1982, four of them in the first period which is another club record. He also added two assists for a seven point game which tied a team mark.

Grant and his wife, Pam, have a son, Kyle Patrick, and make their home in the western suburbs.

BOB MURRAY

Shoots Right 5'10" 183 lbs.

Born: Kingston, Ontario

November 26, 1954

Murray will be entering his ninth season with the Black Hawks after coming to them as a third round draft choice in 1974. Since that time, Murray has proven himself to be one of the premier defensemen in the NHL. He is one of the better point men on the power play as well as being one of the best at moving the puck out of his own end. Teamed with Doug Wilson, they give the Black Hawks a pretty good one-two punch in the back line.

Last season, Murray played in 79 games and had seven goals, including five power play goals, and 32 assists for 39 points which ranked third among the Hawks scoring defensemen. He played in 13 playoff games and had two goals and three assists. Murray is a tough cookie and he exemplified this when he broke his nose against Toronto on December 22 and returned to the lineup after an absence of only one game.

Murray has a shot at a few personal milestones this season; he needs 12 goals to reach the 100 goal mark in his career; he needs only three assists to reach the 200 plateau; and he needs just 15 points to crack the 300 point barrier.

Although he is excellent offensively, his skills defensively make him a tremendous two way player. His all around ability was recognized again last season when he was chosen by coach Roger Neilson to represent the Campbell Conference in the All-Star Game.

TROY MURRAY

Shoots Right 6'1" 195 lbs.

Born: Calgary, Alberta

July 31, 1962

Troy will be entering his second full season in a Black Hawk uniform. He came to Chicago as a sixth round draft choice in 1980 out of North Dakota University. There, he led his team to the NCAA championship in 1982 with a performance that also won him the NCAA rookie of the year award.

In the winter of 1981, Murray toured Europe with the Canadian junior team and was an instrumental part in leading Canada to their first world championship since the early '50's.

Murray got his first taste of the NHL in the 1981-82 season when he played in one regular season game and seven playoff games scoring one goal. Last year, despite some early season physical problems, Murray played in 54 games scoring eight goals, including two game winning goals, and added eight assists for 16 points.

DOUG SAUTER TO COACH SPRINGFIELD OF AHL

Doug Sauter was named the new Head Coach of the Springfield Indians of the American Hockey League in a press conference held in Springfield, Massachusetts, on July 1. Sauter comes to Springfield from the Calgary Wranglers of the Western Hockey League in the Canadian Junior Hockey System.

At the age of 29, this will be Sauter's first season behind the bench on the professional level. A former goaltender, Sauter joined the New Westminister Bruins of the Western Canadian Junior Hockey League as an assistant coach in 1974. There, he helped guide the club to two consecutive Memorial Cup Championships in 1977 and 1978. After leaving New Westminister, Sauter took the head coaching position with the Calgary Wranglers before accepting his new position with the Springfield Indians.

A solid coach, Sauter's teams led the Western Hockey League in defense for the past two seasons and, in 1981, Sauter was named the WHL "Coach of the Year".

JACK O'CALLAHAN

Shoots Right 6'1" 187 lbs.

Born: Charleston, Mass.

July 24, 1957

Entering his second season as a Black Hawk, O'Callahan was a sixth round draft choice of the Black Hawks in 1977 out of Boston University where he starred for three years. O'Callahan opted to remain in college and eventually played for the United States Olympic Team that captured the Gold Medal in the 1980 Winter Olympic Games.

O'Callahan played two seasons for the New Brunswick Hawks in the American Hockey League before coming to training camp last year. While he started the season with the parent club, Jack was sent to play at Springfield of the AHL. O'Callahan wound up playing 39 games for the Black Hawks last season and had 11 assists.

A big, tough kid, O'Callahan likes to throw his weight around. He is an extremely aggressive player who is adept at taking the body. Jack has also shown an ability to handle the puck and move out of his own end.

During the off season, Jack and his wife, Stacy, return to their home town of Charleston. When the season is in progress, the O'Callahans make their home in the western suburbs.

RICK PATERSON

Shoots Right 5'9" 187 lbs.

Born: Kingston, Ontario

February 10, 1958

One of the most underrated players on the Hawks, Paterson put together his best season in the NHL last year. A third round draft choice in 1978, Rick has made it to stay in the NHL.

Always having a positive mental attitude, Paterson fought back from a couple of disappointments of being sent back to the minors and has gone on to prove himself as a valuable member of the Chicago Black Hawks. Used primarily as a special teams player, Paterson played a vital role on the Hawks penalty killing squad as he scored three shorthanded goals for the Hawks last year.

Last season, Paterson scored 14 goals and added nine assists for 23 points, all career highs, in 79 games. While he does not score many goals, he always seems to score an important goal at a crucial time in the hockey game. Of those 14 goals, three were shorthanded, two were game winning goals, and two were game tying goals. Talk about scoring big goals, Paterson scored a shorthanded goal against the Minnesota North Stars in last year's playoff series that was also the game winning goal.

During the off season, Rick and his wife, Ann, spend most of their time in Ontario while residing in the western suburbs during the season.

RICH PRESTON

Shoots Right 5'11" 187 lbs.

Born: Regina, Sask.

May 22, 1952

Preston is entering his fifth season in a Black Hawk uniform. A graduate of Denver University, Rich signed with the Houston Aeros of the WHA for the 1974-75 season. After five years in the WHA with Houston and Winnipeg, he came to the Black Hawks for the 1979-80 season.

Rich is the kind of player who quietly goes about getting the job done. He works hard patrolling his wing and checking his opponent out of the game. Still, Preston has been able to contribute to the Chicago offense along with linemates Darryl Sutter and Tom Lysiak.

Last season, Preston scored 25 goals, including four power player goals and two game winning goals, and added 28 assists for 53 points. He played in 13 playoff games and had two goals and seven assists for nine points. One of those playoff goals was in overtime against the Minnesota North Stars in a game that brought the Black Hawks back from a 3-0 deficit to a 4-3 win.

Preston's 28 assists last year allowed him to reach the century mark in career NHL assists. His 25 goals brings his career total to 78 which leaves him 22 goals short of the 100 mark in the NHL. He also needs 22 points to reach the 200 point plateau in his NHL career.

Rich and his wife, Laura, reside in the western suburbs.

DENIS SAVARD

Shoots Right 5'10" 167 lbs.

Born: Pt. Gatineau, Quebec

February 4, 1961

Entering his fourth season with the Black Hawks, Savard has already proven himself to be one of the best in the NHL today. Drafted number one by the Hawks and third overall in 1980, Savard has already rewritten many of the Black Hawk records.

For the second consecutive season, Savard led the Hawks in scoring with 35 goals, including 13 power play goals, and 86 assists. His 121 points eclipsed the old record of 119 he set the year before. Denis also led the Hawks in playoff scoring with eight goals, including three power play goals which led the team, and nine assists for 17 points. Savard's combined regular season and playoff totals of 95 assists and 138 points both set new club marks.

Not only are Savard's totals impressive, but the way he attains them is also very impressive. He is one of the best skaters in the league and can handle the puck with the best of them. He has moves that seem humanly impossible. Although he may be one of the smaller players in the league, he stands tall among players in the NHL for his feats on the ice.

After only three seasons in the NHL, Denis has surpassed the 200 plateau in career assists and the 300 mark in total points. His 35 goals last season gave him 95 and leave him just five short of the 100 goal mark.

Still single, Denis spends most of his off season in Montreal. During the season, Savard resides in the western suburbs.

Born: Sudbury, Ontario

March 3, 1958

Secord will be entering his fourth full season and fifth overall with the Black Hawks. Big Al was the number one draft choice of the Boston Bruins in the 1978 draft. After playing two and one half seasons with the Bruins, he was acquired by the Black Hawks in a trade that sent defenseman Mike O'Connell to Boston on December 19, 1980.

Since coming to the Hawks, Secord has scored 111 goals, including a 54 goal season last year, to become only the second player in Black Hawk history to surpass the 50 goal mark in a season. His combined regular season and playoff total of 58 goals last year tied a club record set by Bobby Hull in 1961-62.

Secord has found his niche on the line with Denis Savard and Steve Larmer. That line set new Black Hawk marks for most goals by a line in one season at 132 and most points by a line in one season at 297. Secord's contribution was 54 goals and 32 assists for 86 points.

Big Al has always had the reputation of being a rough and tough player on the ice. He does not back away from trouble when it presents itself, but is rarely seen starting the trouble himself. His concentration has been more on the game of hockey and it has shown in his statistics. Secord has become one of the more prolific scorers in the NHL over the past couple of seasons.

Off the ice, Al is one of the most mild mannered people you will ever meet. However, once the puck is dropped, he becomes as fierce a competitor as one can find. Secord is single and resides in the western suburbs.

DARRYL SUTTER

Born: Viking, Alberta

August 19, 1958

One of four brothers playing in the NHL, Darryl enters his fifth year with the Black Hawks. Sutter was an eleventh round draft choice of the Black Hawks in 1978. He got his first taste of the NHL late in the 1979-80 season when he was called up from New Brunswick for the last eight games and scored a pair of goals.

In his first full season, 1980-81, Sutter played in 76 games and scored 40 goals, a career high. He came back the following season and, despite various injuries that kept him sidelined for half the year, still managed to score 23 goals. Last season, Sutter played in all 80 regular season games and scored 31 goals. His career total of 96 goals makes him a sure bet to crack the 100 goal mark this season.

Darryl was bestowed a great honor last December when he was named Team Captain. He became the second Sutter brother to receive such an honor. Darryl leads by example as he plays with 100% effort every shift he is on the ice. He is constantly digging in the corners, covering his wing, and doing anything necessary to help the club win.

Sutter has two more brothers on their way into the NHL as they are in the Flyers and Penguins organizations. Soon, they will be the only family in the NHL able to field their own hockey club.

In the off season, the Sutters all gather on their father's farm in Viking, Alberta, where they enjoy fishing, hunting, and just plain relaxing. During the season, Darryl and his wife, Wanda, reside in the western suburbs.

Shoots Left 6'3" 210 lbs.

Born: Toronto, Ontario

December 19, 1958

Behn came to the Black Hawks on June 8, 1983, from Philadelphia in a trade that sent defenseman Doug Crossman and a second round draft choice in 1984 to the Flyers. Wilson was a first round pick and sixth overall by the Flyers in the 1978 amateur draft.

Of his five years in a Flyer's uniform, Wilson's best season was in 1980-81 when he scored 16 goals and added 47 assists for 63 points. He has a blistering shot from the point and is valuable on power play opportunities. He handles the puck well and is an imposing figure in front of the net for opposing players.

Last season, Wilson played in 62 games for the Flyers and had eight goals, including three power play and two game winning goals, and 24 assists for 32 points. He also played in the Flyers three playoff games and chalked up one assist.

Wilson will be counted upon to give the Hawks a defenseman who will clear out the front of the net. He is a big, strong man who uses his size to his best advantage. He will mix it up when the situation calls for it, but he has also proven in the past that he has the capabilities to be a very effective all around player.

Wilson is a very personable and articulate young man. He and his wife, Patti make their home in a Chicago suburb during the season.

DOUG WILSON

Shoots Left 6'1" 187 lbs.

Born: Ottawa, Ontario

July 5, 1957

One of the premier defensemen in the NHL, Wilson is entering his seventh season with the Black Hawks after being drafted number one by Chicago in 1977.

Wilson is a very good all around player. Not only is he a stalwart on defense, but he gives the Chicago offense another dimension by coming up from his defensive posture to score goals.

Wilson is especially valuable to the Black Hawk power play as he possesses a blistering low shot from the point. Not only does he find the mark on several occasions, but his low shot allows teammates the opportunity to deflect the puck past opposing netminders.

Last season, Wilson scored 18 goals, giving him 100 career goals, and added 51 assists for 69 points. The 51 assists set a new Black Hawk record for most assists by a defenseman in a season eclipsing the old mark of 50 set by Pat Stapleton in 1968-69. Wilson continued his fine play in the playoffs as he played in 13 games while scoring four goals and adding 11 assists for 15 points, second among Hawk playoff scorers.

In the off season, Doug enjoys playing golf and softball. Suffering from hyperglycemia, Wilson must watch his diet very closely. Doug's wife, Kathy, makes sure he eats the proper foods by taking the time to prepare the special dishes he needs. The Wilsons reside in the western suburbs.

PAT FOLEY

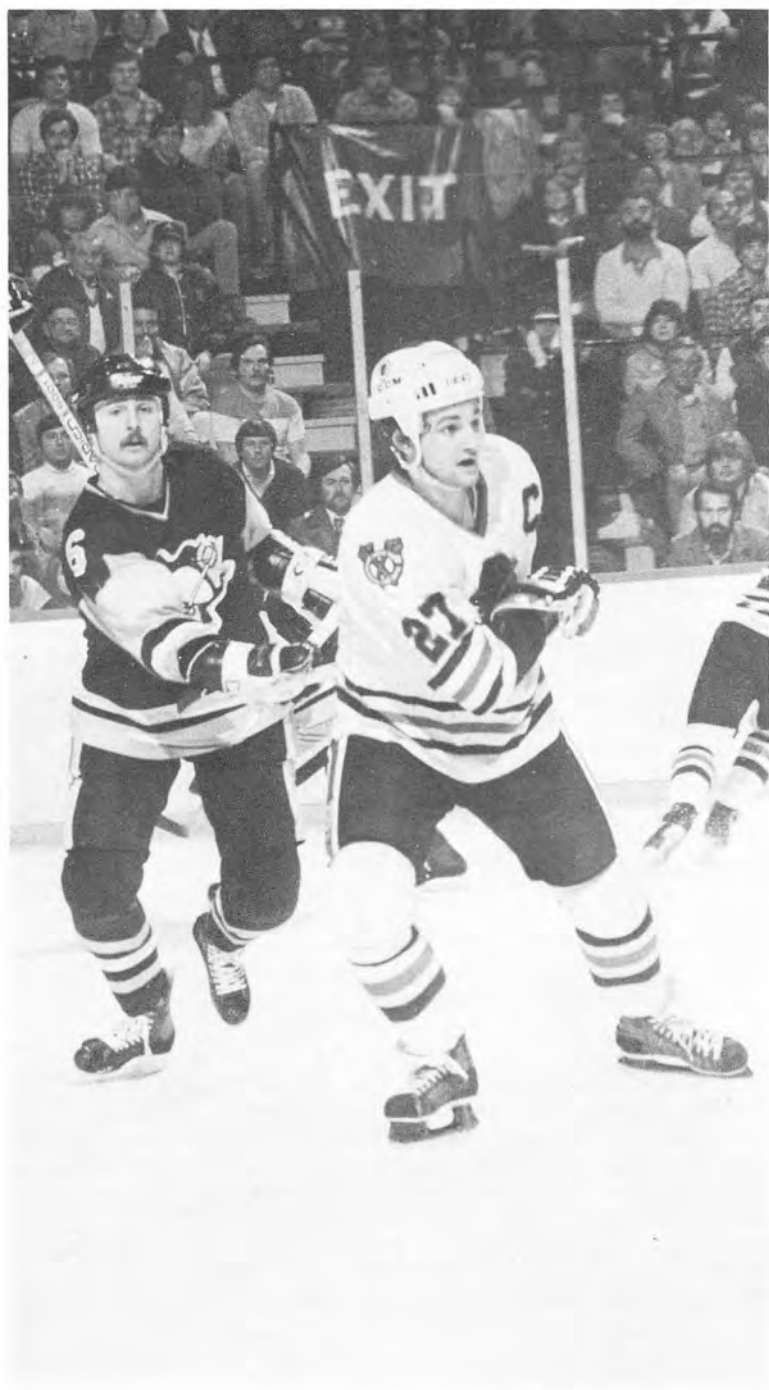

Pat Foley brings his exciting style of play-by-play back to the Black Hawks' radio booth for his fourth season. Foley, 28, grew up in Glenview and was discovered by Black Hawk Vice President Michel Wirtz who listened to a few of Pat's tapes he had done while working for the Grand Rapids Owls of the International League. Pat attended Michigan State University and did the local broadcast for the baseball as well as the hockey team. Foley admits that one of his all time favorite announcers was Lloyd Pettit who was the "voice" of the Black Hawks for many years before retiring to Milwaukee where he now owns the Milwaukee Admirals of the International League. Foley is single and resides in a Chicago suburb.

DALE TALLON

Dale Tallon returns to the SportsVision booth for his second season of color commentary. A number one draft choice of the Vancouver Canucks in 1970, Tallon went on to play for ten seasons in the NHL before retiring at the end of the 1979-80 season. Tallon came to the Black Hawks in 1973 from Vancouver in a deal that sent Jerry Korab and Gary Smith to the Canucks. After playing here for five seasons, Tallon finished his career with the Pittsburgh Penguins. Dale has shown a tremendous ability to analyze and convey what is happening on the ice to his viewers. He is a personable young man and that personality comes through when he is doing the telecast. His enthusiasm and knowledge of the game make him a pleasure to listen to.

KEN WILSON

Ken Wilson, 35, returns for his second season as the Black Hawks play-by-play man of SportsVision. A graduate of the University of Michigan, Ken handled the announcing duties for both their baseball and hockey teams. He went on to broadcast hockey for the Cincinnati Swords of the American Hockey League when they captured the Calder Cup in 1972-73. Hockey announcers Danny Gullivan of Montreal and Budd Lynch and Bruce Martin of Detroit had the most influence on Wilson. However, Ken does admit to having heard Lloyd Pettit in his Black Hawk days. Before coming to Chicago, Wilson was a broadcaster for the Seattle Mariners of the American League and this past summer he did some television for the Cincinnati Reds. Ken and his wife, Bev, have a five year old son, Grant.

SCHEDULE:

Each of the 21 teams will play an 80-game schedule with those teams in The Smythe, Norris and Adams Divisions having eight games (four home, four away) against each of their Divisional opponents, plus three games against each of the remaining 16 teams in the League. In the case of the three games against the remaining clubs, teams will play two home, one away or vice-versa, alternating the extra home game each year.

The six clubs in the Patrick Division—New Jersey, New York Islanders, New York Rangers, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington—will play each other seven times with three games against each of the remaining 15 teams. The home-ice differential will be alternated each season.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS:

At the conclusion of the regular schedule, the top four finishers in each of the Divisions will qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

The division semi-finals will have the first place club oppose the fourth-place team and second versus third in a best-of-five series. The winners of each series will play a best-of-seven division final series with the team gaining higher standing during the regular-season holding home-ice advantage.

The four divisional winners will meet in a best-of-seven Conference Championship series. The Smythe Division winner will face the Norris Division champion, while the Patrick Division victor will oppose the Adams Division winner. The Conference winner will meet in a best-of-seven final series for the Stanley Cup.

Home-ice advantage for the semi-final and final rounds will be alternated each season according to Division and Conference, with the Patrick and Norris Divisions, along with the Wales Conference, having the advantage in 1984.
